John Bromley’s Night Photography

Bill Volkmer
• I began trading slides through the mail with Toronto’s John F. Bromley in mid-1963, while I was living in Canton, OH.
• Everything John took was top-notch, but the slides I liked best were the ones he took at night.
• As most of you know, nighttime photography with Kodachrome film was tricky at best. Keep that in mind as you view these.
Bingham Loop carrying Pittsburgh roll sign. October 30, 1965  John F. Bromley Photo

John F. Bromley Photo
September 1960 - Bloor St. car at Yonge St. Subway. John F. Bromley Photo
4200 Series on Carlton line. John F. Bromley Photo
Spadina at Bloor  May 16, 1964  John F. Bromley Photo
Davisville Yard November 16, 1963  John F. Bromley Photo
Spadina at Bloor St. May 1, 1965  John F. Bromley
Gerrard at Kingmount  April 17, 1964.  John F. Bromley
John’s 2003 Chistmas Card.
A Bromley Christmas Card.
Best wishes of the season
John & Margaret Bromley

Bromley 2010 Christmas Card.
John Bromley and Jack May in San Francisco in 2015.
• John passed away December 1, 2019 after a brief illness.
• He will be missed.